Mandatory vs. Discretionary Guidance

- Mandatory (must/shall be followed)
  - Statutes
  - HUD regulations
  - Current PIH Notices
  - HUD Handbooks and Forms
  - Opinions by OIG

- Discretionary (may/elect/choose to follow = optional)
  - Guidebooks
  - Expired PIH Notices

- Safe Harbor
  - When a policy is not mandatory, HUD recommends PHAs follow discretionary guidance. This is because even though it is at a PHA's option to implement, HUD has determined it to be in compliance.
  - Where a PHA implements policy outside of HUD guidance, there is no “safe harbor.”

Housing Opportunity Through Modernization Act of 2016 (HOTMA, HR 3700)
Housing Opportunity Through Modernization Act of 2016 (HOTMA, HR 3700)

- What is it?
  - Most sweeping housing policy change since QWHRA of 1998.
  - Approved on July 29, 2016

- When does it go into effect?
  - HOTMA authorizes HUD to implement through regulation or a PIH Notice; however, OMB review may still be necessary!!
  - PHAs should not modify their ACOPs at this time.

HOTMA – Rent Policy
Affordability and Minimum Rents

- Minimum Rent Threshold did not change. It is still a maximum of $50.

    - An interim recertification for an increase in adjusted annual income must be preceded by a decrease in income
    - If within last 3 months of recertification PHA may choose not to complete interim recertification

Use of prior-year income

- At initial income determination, PHAs must use current income.

  - HUD, in consultation with other Federal agencies, must develop electronic procedures to enable PHAs to have access to benefit determinations that HUD determines to have comparable reliability
HOTMA – Rent Policy
Impact on program costs

- HUD may make adjustments to the Operating Fund Formula if the report identifies a material reduction in the net income of public housing agencies nationwide. Should any overall material reduction in public housing revenues be found, HUD must recommend legislative changes to Congress.

PIH Notice 2016-05: Streamlining
Overview

• Slides will note if this is a Mandatory Change or Discretionary Change
• Slides will note if there is any impact of HOTMA on the Streamlining Rule.
• Any changes adopted from PIH Notice 2016-05 must be incorporated into the an agency’s PHA Plan (this may require a Significant Amendment) and the agency’s ACOP.

PIH Notice 2016-05: Streamlining
Verification of Social Security Numbers

• Mandatory Change

Such children may already have an SSN assigned, but there may be circumstance that make it difficult to obtain the documentation in a timely fashion.

  - Step 2. Family rent is equal to applicable flat rent for unit size.
  - Step 3. Subtract TTP from family maximum rent.
  - Step 4. Divide the family maximum rent by number of persons in family to determine maximum subsidy per family member who has citizenship or eligible immigration status. This is the maximum member subsidy.

  - Step 6. The mixed family TTP is the maximum rent minus the amount of eligible subsidy.

PIH Notice 2015-19: Exclusion of Arrest Records

Background

- Office of General Counsel Guidance on Application of Fair Housing Standards to the Use of Criminal Records by Providers of Housing and Real-Estate Related Transactions, April 4, 2016
  - Where to find the OGC guidance: http://bit.ly/1T81F5u
PIH Notice 2015-19: Exclusion of Arrest Records

Background

• The Fair Housing Act prohibits both intentional housing discrimination and housing practices that have an unjustified discriminatory effect because of race, national origin or other protected characteristics. Because of widespread racial and ethnic disparities in the U.S. criminal justice system, criminal history-based restrictions on access to housing are likely disproportionately to burden African Americans and Hispanics. While the Act does not prohibit housing providers from appropriately considering criminal history information when making housing decisions, arbitrary and overbroad criminal history-related bans are likely to lack a legally sufficient justification. Thus, a discriminatory effect resulting from a policy or practice that denies housing to anyone with a prior arrest or any kind of criminal conviction cannot be justified, and therefore such a practice would violate the Fair Housing Act.

• Policies that exclude persons based on criminal history must be tailored to serve the housing provider’s substantial, legitimate, nondiscriminatory interest and take into consideration such factors as the type of the crime and the length of the time since conviction. Where a policy or practice excludes individuals with only certain types of convictions, a housing provider will still bear the burden of proving that any discriminatory effect caused by such policy or practice is justified. Such a determination must be made on a case-by-case basis.

    Selective use of criminal history as a pretext for unequal treatment of individuals based on race, national origin, or other protected characteristics violates the Act.
(a) Selection policies, generally. (1) The PHA shall establish and adopt written policies for admission of tenants.

(iii) Precluding admission of applicants whose habits and practices reasonably may be expected to have a detrimental effect on the residents or the project environment;

(a) The tenant selection criteria to be established and information to be considered shall be reasonably related to individual attributes and behavior of an applicant and shall not be related to those which may be imputed to a particular group or category of persons of which an applicant may be a member.

(c) In selection of families for admission to its public housing program, or to occupy a public housing development or unit, the PHA is responsible for screening family behavior and suitability for tenancy. The PHA may consider all relevant information, which may include, but is not limited to:

(2) A record of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, or living or housekeeping habits at prior residences which may adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of other tenants; and
PIH Notice 2015-19: Exclusion of Arrest Records
Current regulations at 24 CFR 960.203 - Excerpts

(3) A history of criminal activity involving crimes of physical violence to persons or property and other criminal acts which would adversely affect the health, safety or welfare of other tenants. (See §960.204.) With respect to criminal activity described in §960.204:

(i) The PHA may require an applicant to exclude a household member in order to be admitted to the housing program where that household member has participated in or been culpable for actions described in §960.204 (Denial of admission for criminal activity or drug abuse by household members) that warrants denial.

(ii) The PHA may, where a statute requires that the PHA prohibit admission for a prescribed period of time after some disqualifying behavior or event, choose to continue that prohibition for a longer period of time.

PIH Notice 2015-19: Exclusion of Arrest Records
Current regulations at 24 CFR 960 – Considerations

- 24 CFR 960.203 (4)(d)(2) Consideration of rehabilitation
  (i) In determining whether to deny admission for illegal drug use or a pattern of illegal drug use by a household member who is no longer engaging in such use, or for abuse or a pattern of abuse of alcohol by a household member who is no longer engaging in such abuse, the PHA may consider whether such household member is participating in or has successfully completed a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program, or has otherwise been rehabilitated successfully (42 U.S.C. 13661). For this purpose, the PHA may require the applicant to submit evidence of the household member’s current participation in, or successful completion of, a supervised drug or alcohol rehabilitation program or evidence of otherwise having been rehabilitated successfully.
PIH Notice 2015-19: Exclusion of Arrest Records
Current regulations at 24 CFR 960 – Further considerations

• 24 CFR 960.204 Denial of admissions or drug-related criminal activity
  – Required denial of admission for the following:
    – Persons evicted for drug-related criminal activity for three years, except the PHA may admit the evicted household member –if– they have completed a supervised drug rehabilitation program or the circumstances leading to the eviction no longer exist (the criminal member has passed away or is imprisoned).
    – Persons “currently engaged in” illegal use of a drug – Persons convicted of methamphetamine production
    – Persons subject to a lifetime registration requirement under a State sex offender registration program
    – Persons that abuse or show a pattern of abuse of alcohol

Summary

• In short, tenant selection policies for criminal activity or drug-related criminal activity should be based on:
  – A rational nexus (relationship) between the activity and if precluding admission of the applicant/termination of the participant based on the activity reasonably may be expected to have a detrimental effect on the residents or the project environment
  – On the conduct underlying the arrest, not the arrest itself, preponderance of evidence, or conviction
  – Consideration of the type of crime and the length of time since conviction
PIH Notice 2011-44: Guidance on EPAs’s Lead Based Paint Renovation, Repair, and Painting Rule, HUD’s Lead Safe Housing Rule (LSHR), and the EPA-HUD Lead Disclosure Rule (LDR) (and EPA’s Renovation, Repair, and Painting Program (RRP))

PIH Notice 2011: LSHR and LDR
Background

• The reemergence of the lead safety as a topic came about after the drinking water crisis in Flint, Michigan. In March of 2016 Congress held hearings on Safe Drinking Water Act and lead contamination in the water supply.
  – A directive of Congress from these hearing was for HUD to follow up on the LSHR and LDR.
PIH Notice 2011-44: LSHR, LDR, and RRP

It requires owners to inform tenants about the hazard of lead-based paint and make a disclosure of the presence of any known lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards in the unit, common areas, or exterior areas. Or the owner must indicate they have no knowledge.

Requirements

LSHR

- PHAs must make such LBP available for inspection by tenants

LDR
- Provide each tenant with a copy of the EPA’s “Protect Your Family from Lead in Your Home”
- Have PHA management/delegate of management and tenant sign a LBP Disclosure Form

PIH Notice 2015-12: CSSR
Background, Applicability, and Policy Requirements

- Implemented by QHWRA of 1998
- Applies only to the Low Rent Public Housing Program
- CSSR mandates each non-exempt adult complete 96 hours of CSSR activities by each annual certification.
- For exempt individuals “engaging in work activities,” HUD encourages 30 hours per week as a minimum. PHAs may set their own minimum.
- PHAs must set policies for CSSR in their ACOPs (24 CFR 960.605(a)) to include:
  - The PHA responsibility to administer CSSR
  - Eligible and non-eligible activities
  - Exemptions from the CSSR requirement
  - Compliance review standards
- PIH Notice 2015-12 goes into depth about the types of community service and self-sufficiency activities and partnerships that can be included in an ACOP.
PIH Notice 2015-12: CSSR

Public housing resident CSSR documentation

At lease execution or reexamination after the effective date of the ACOP CSSR policy adoption, all adult members of the household must:

A. Provide documentation, if applicable, that they qualify for an exemption; (Documentation provided by the tenant will be used by the PHA to determine whether the tenant is exempt from the CSSR) and,
B. Sign a certification (examples provided in Attachments A and B) that they have received and read the policy and understand that if they are not exempt, failure to comply with the community service requirement will result in nonrenewal of their lease, per 24 CFR 966.4(l)(2)(iii)(D).

Should a resident become a non-exempt person, it their responsibility to report this to the POHA. When an exempt person becomes non-exempt, it is also their responsibility to report it to the PHA.

PIH Notice 2016-06 provides additional information and will be covered in a few slides.
PIH Notice 2015-12: CSSR
Non-compliance with CSSR

• PHAs may not evict a family due to non-CSSR compliance. If a PHA finds a tenant is non-compliant, it must provide written notification to the tenant that includes:
  – A brief description of the finding of non-compliance with CSSR.
  – A statement that the PHA will not renew the lease at the end of the current 12-month lease term unless the tenant enters into a written work-out agreement with the PHA or the family provides written assurance that is satisfactory to the PHA explaining that the tenant or other noncompliant resident no longer resides in the unit. Such written work-out agreement must include the means through which a noncompliant family member will comply with the CSSR requirement.

• The tenant may request a grievance hearing on the PHA determination, in accordance with 24 CFR Part 966, subpart B, and the tenant may exercise any available judicial remedy to seek timely redress for the PHA’s nonrenewal of the lease because of such determination.

PIH Notice 2015-12: CSSR
PHA enforcement documentation

• If a non-compliant resident refuses to sign a written work-out agreement, or fail to comply with the work-out agreement, PHAs initiate termination of tenancy proceedings at the end of the current 12 month lease. The PHA will provide the following procedural safeguards:
  A. Adequate notice to the tenant of the grounds for terminating the tenancy and for non-renewal of the lease;
  B. Right of the tenant to be represented by counsel;
  C. Opportunity for the tenant to refute the evidence presented by the PHA, including the right to confront and cross-examine witnesses and present any affirmative legal or equitable defense which the tenant may have; and,
  D. A decision on the merits.
PIH Notice 2015-12: CSSR
50058 Coding

- The Instruction Booklet for Form HUD 50058 contains information on coding CSSR status. At the time of program admission, enter either 3 or 4. At each annual re-examination, enter code 1, 2, or 4. See below:
  - 1 - PHA determines resident is not exempt and is in compliance with CSSR
  - 2 - PHA determines resident is not exempt and not complying with CSSR
  - 3 - PHA is in the process of verifying CSSR compliance
  - 4 - PHA determines resident is exempt
  - 5 - Do not use this code for “not applicable”

PIH Notice 2015-12: CSSR
Monitoring

- HUD has been posting quarterly CSSR reports. These reports are available for a limited time.
- REAC has been sending emails out when the CSSR reports are posted at the following link: http://bit.ly/2cQz6pZ
- The report contains tenants with work or welfare income. It does not exclude tenants with disabilities.
- PHAs are encouraged to monitor their CSSR submissions using this report. The report may repeat tenant information from quarter to quarter. It is not necessary to re-check those tenants if their status had been previously verified. PHAs should check the report for new tenants each quarter to verify accuracy of 50058 reporting.
PIH Notice 2016-06: CSSR
Background/Applicability

• In the March 8, 2016 Federal Register, HUD published programmatic streamlining that allows PHAs to elect to have non-exempt residents self-certify completion of the 96 hours of CSSR activities over the previous 12 month period.
• It also amended 24 CFR 960.604 to state if a PHA permits resident self-certification, it must notify residents of this ability.
PIH Notice 2016-06: CSSR
Streamlined public housing resident CSSR documentation

• PHAs may elect to have non-exempt residents self-certify completion of the 96 hours of CSSR activities over the previous 12 month period.

• The PHA must develop a form that includes:

PIH Notice 2016-06: CSSR
PHA ACOP CSSR Policy

• PHAs must update their ACOP CSSR Policies prior to accepting CSSR self-certifications from residents

• PHAs must continue to accept third-party verifications of CSSR for residents under lease at the time of the policy amendment for that lease cycle.

• Subsequent lease cycles after the adopted policy change, the PHA may accept self-certification.

• For active work-out plans with tenants, self-certifications may not be accepted until the PHA has verified through a third party that the tenant has completed the required hours.
PIH Notice 2016-06: CSSR
Sampling and Monitoring Self-Certification of CSSR

- A PHA that elects to adopt resident self-certification of CSSR it must validate a sample of certifications with third parties the resident reported.
- It must be statistically valid, random sample from a “universe” of residents that submitted self-certifications.
- The universe should not include:
  - Residents that are under the age of 18 years or 62 years or older;
  - Residents that are exempt;
  - Residents for which a PHA receives third party verification of completion with CSSR; and
  - Residents that did not complete the required CSSR.
- Required universe and sample sizes are included in Attachment C of PIH Notice 2016-06.
- PHAs should review certifications received during the previous 12 months.
- The third party verifications should include the name of the organization or person, a signature from a third-party staff person, and that staff person’s contact information.

PIH Notice 2015-03:
Changes to Flat Rent Requirements – 2015 FY Appropriations Act
PIH Notice 2015-03: Flat Rent
FY 2015 Appropriations Act Changes

- The FY2014 Appropriations Act established flat rents at no less than 80% of the applicable Fair Market Rent (FMR). Where flat rents increased a family’s rent by more than 35%, then the new flat rent was to be phased in.

- The FY2015 Appropriations Act amended the flat rent requirements to require that flat rents must be set at:
  - No less than 80% of the applicable FMR
  - The discretion of the Secretary, such other applicable FMR established by the Secretary that the Secretary determines more accurately reflects local market conditions and is based on an applicable market area that is geographically smaller than the applicable market area used for purposes of the applicable FMR

- PHAs may apply for an exception waiver for a flat rent amount that is lower than the options outlined above. The Secretary may grant it if HUD determines the FMR for the market area does not reflect the market value of the property and the proposed lower flat rent amount is based on a market analysis of the applicable market.

PIH Notice 2015-03: Flat Rent
Smaller Geographical Area FMRs (SAFMR)

- PHAs may use SAFMRs, which HUD publishes annually at: http://bit.ly/29DDjg2

- If HUD does not publish and SAFMR for an area, HUD will permit PHAs to use the unadjusted rent (the FMR established directly by the American Community Survey by the US Census Bureau).

- PHAs are not permitted to establish SAFMRs different than these options.

- For areas where HUD has not determined an SAFMR or an unadjusted rent, PHAs must set rents at no less than 80% of FMR or apply for an exception flat rent.
PIH Notice 2015-03: Flat Rent
FMRs and Utility Payments

- FMRs are gross rent estimates that cover the rent plus the cost of all necessary utilities regardless of who actually pays the utilities.
- PHAs should consider who is responsible for direct payments of utilities, and adjust the flat rent accordingly.
  - If a PHA pays the utilities, no adjustment is necessary.
  - If a tenant pays the utilities, the PHA must adjust the rent downward using a utility allowance.

PIH Notice 2015-13: Flat Rent
Flat Rent Policies – How to Comply on an Annual Basis

- In order to comply with the flat rent requirements annually, PHAs must no later than 90 days after the issuance of FMRs or SAFMRs:
  1) Compare the current flat rent amount to the applicable FMR and SAFMR/unadjusted rent:
     a) If the flat rent is at least 80% of the lower of the FMR or SAFMR/unadjusted rent, the PHA is in compliance. No further steps are necessary;
     b) If the flat rent is less than 80% of the lower of the FMR and SAFMR, the PHA must set flat rents at no less than 80% of the lower of the FMR or SAFMR/unadjusted rent, subject to the utilities adjustment, or the PHA may request an exception flat rent
  2) Update the flat rent policies in the ACOP as necessary;
  3) At all new admissions, permit the family to choose between the flat rent amount and the income-based rent; and
  4) For current public housing residents, offer the updated flat rent amount at the next annual rent option, and permit the family to choose between the flat rent amount and the income-based rent.
PIH Notice 2015-13: Flat Rent

Flat Rent Increase Phase-In Requirements

- The FY 2015 Appropriations Act provides PHAs flexibility to establish flat rents at lower amounts eliminating the three year phase for ALL flat rent increases.
- PHAs can phase-in rents on a case-by-case basis for families whose rent does increase by 35% or more.
- PHAs that began phase-in of flat rents do not need to take any immediate action to update the flat rents for such families, but at the next annual rent option, the following applies:
  1. Compare the updated flat rent amount applicable to the unit to the rent that was being paid by the family immediately prior to the annual rent option;
     a. If the new flat rent amount would not increase a family’s rental payment by more than 35%, the family may choose to pay either the updated flat rent amount or the previously calculated income-based rent;
     b. If the PHA determines that the updated flat rent amount would increase a household’s rental payment by more than 35%, the family may choose to pay the phased-in flat rent amount resulting from the flat rent impact analysis or the previously calculated income-based rent.

Conducting Annual Rent Options – Flat Rent or IBR

- PHAs must annually give families the option of flat or income-based rent (IBR), but must not give families the option more than once a year unless the family has chosen the flat rent and experiences a financial hardship.
- PHAs must provide the following information to tenants:
  - The PHAs’ policy on switching the type of rent due to financial hardship
  - The dollar amount of the IBR
- For families that choose flat rents, PHAs do not have to conduct reexaminations annually. PHAs must conduct reexaminations at least every three years. HOWEVER, PHAs must still offer the annual flat rent or IBR options to these families.
PIH Notice 2015-13: Flat Rent
First full examination

1) Conduct a full examination of family income and composition at the first annual rent option (Year 1);
2) Inform the family of the flat rent amount and the rent amount determined by the examination of family income and composition;
3) Inform the family of the PHA’s policies on switching rent types due to financial hardship; and
4) Apply the family’s rent decision at the next lease renewal.

PIH Notice 2015-13: Flat Rent
Second and third year annual rent option

1) PHAs may, but are not required, to conduct a full examination of family income and composition for the second and third annual rent options. If a PHA chooses not to conduct an examination of family income for these annual rent options, PHAs must use the income information from the examination of family income and composition from the first annual rent option;
2) PHAs must inform the family of the updated flat rent amount, and the rent amount determined by the most recent examination of family income and composition;
3) PHAs must inform the family of the PHA’s policies on switching rent types due to financial hardship; and
4) PHAs must apply the family’s rent decision at the next lease renewal.

- For the purpose of conducting the rent option meeting for a family that has paid the flat rent for the previous three years, and for which the PHA has not conducted a reexamination of family income and composition in the last three years, the PHA must complete a full re-examination of family income and composition in order to update the income-based rent amount.
PIH Notice 2015-13: Flat Rent Reminder

- PHAs are reminded that the flat rent amount a family pays is not locked in for the three year period. The PHA must revise the flat rent amount from year to year based on changes to the FMR. Families currently paying the flat rent amount must be offered the choice between the updated flat rent amount, and the previously calculated IBR.

Terms and definitions

• PHAs must update terms and definitions in their ACOPs and related policies to include the definitions at the below citations:
  – Sexual orientation (24 CFR 5.100)
  – Gender identity (24 CFR 5.100)
  – Family, disabled family, elderly family and near elderly family (24 CFR 5.403)

  - This does not prohibit an individual from voluntarily self-identifying these characteristics.
- PHAs may still inquire about an applicant’s or participant’s sex in order to determine the number of bedrooms for which a household may be based on the PHA’s written occupancy standards.
- PHAs must collect and report on a program participant’s sex through HUD 50058 and submit the data to IMS/PIC.

PIH Notice 2014-20: Equal Access
Complaints to PHAs

- If a PHA receives a complaint from a participant or applicant alleging a violation of the Equal Access Rule, the PHA must determine if a program violation occurred and implement corrective action(s). PHAs may seek assistance from the Field Office.
- In all cases the PHA must advise the family to file a fair housing complaint if they feel they have been discriminated against under the FHA.
- PHAs must also follow their internal policies for responding to complaints. PHAs must provide written notice of receipt of the complaint to those to have violated the rule and that the complainant be informed such notice was made. PIH Notice 2015-02: Effective EIV Usage

Overview

- PIH Notice 2010-19, extended by PIH Notice 2015-02, covers a myriad of topics including, but not limited to:
  - Mandating EIV usage for tenant employment and income information during reexaminations; reducing administrative and improper subsidy payments
  - Establishes a Verification Hierarchy
  - Provides guidance on what types of verification to maintain in tenant files
  - Sets requirements for repayment agreements due to under-reporting or failure to report income.
PIH Notice 2015-02: Effective EIV Usage

EIV Printout Retention

• To comply with PIH Notice 2010-19, PHA by printing and maintaining an EIV Income Report or EIV Individual Control Number (ICN) page in the tenant file.
• PHA’s record retention policy will determine the length of time it should maintain the EIV printouts in a tenant file.
• PHAs are authorized to maintain EIV Income Report in the tenant file the duration of tenancy and no longer than three years from EOP date.
• PHAs must by 24 CFR 908.101 keep at a minimum the last three years of HUD Form 50058, and supporting documents for all annual and interim reexaminations.
• All records are to be maintained a period of at least three years from the effective date of the action.

PIH Notice 2015-02: Effective EIV Usage

Tenant Repayment Agreements

  b) The monthly retroactive rent repayment amount is in addition to the family’s regular rent contribution and is payable to the PHA.
  c) The terms of the agreement may be renegotiated if there is a decrease or increase in the family’s income.
  d) Late and missed payments constitute default of the repayment agreement and may result in termination of tenancy and/or assistance.

PIH Notice 2015-02: Effective EIV Usage
Retroactive rent determinations

- PHAs must determine retroactive rent determinations as far back as the PHA has documentation of family reported income.
- Monthly retroactive rent payments plus the amount of the rent the tenant pays at the time of the repayment agreement is executed should be affordable and not exceed 40% of the family’s monthly adjusted income.
- PHAs may establish thresholds and policies for agreements in addition to HUD required procedures. They must at a minimum follow the repayment agreements in PIH Notice 2010-19.
FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service Animals and Assistance Animals for People with Disabilities in Housing and HUD-funded Programs

FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals Summary

• Explains the obligations of housing providers, including PHAs, with respect to animals that provide assistance to persons with disabilities under the Fair Housing Act (Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968 – 42 USC 3601) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 USC 701)
  – The FHAct prohibits discrimination of disability and apply regardless of Federal financial assistance. Section 504 applies specifically to a prohibition of disability discrimination to all recipients of HUD financial assistance (ie PHAs).

• States persons with disabilities may request a reasonable accommodation to a PHA’s “no pets” policy for any assistance animal including an emotional support animal
FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Defining Assistance Animals

• An assistance animal is not a pet.
  – It is animal that works, provides assistance, or performs tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability, -or- provides emotional support that alleviates one or more identified symptoms or effects of a person’s disability.
  – Examples include: guiding individuals with vision impairments, altering individuals with deaf or with auditory impairments, protection or rescue assistance, pulling a wheelchair, fetching items, alerting to impending seizures, or providing emotional support to persons with disabilities who have a disability-related need for such support.
  – The service and/or assistance animal does not need to be individually trained or certified.

FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Evaluating Reasonable Accommodation Requests for Assistance Animal(s)

• After receiving a reasonable accommodation request, the housing provider must consider the following:
  – (1) Does the person seeking to use and live with the animal have a disability (ie a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities)?
  – (2) Does the person making the request have a disability-related need for an assistance animal? In other words, does the animal work, provide assistance, perform tasks or services for the benefit of the person with a disability, or provide emotional support that alleviates one or more of the identified symptoms or effects of a person’s existing disability?
Denial of the reasonable accommodation:

- If the answer to (1) and (2) on slide 103 is “no,” then the FHA Act and Section 504 do not require a modification to a provider’s “no pets” policy, and the reasonable accommodation request may be denied.

- OR – If the specific assistance animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of the individual that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation.

- OR – If the specific assistance animal in question would cause substantial physical damage to the property of others that cannot be reduced or eliminated by another reasonable accommodation.

Policies can not restrict assistance animals by breed, size, or weight limitations.

Assistance animals must be assessed on an individual basis that relies on the specific animal’s actual conduct not on:

- Mere speculation or fear about the types of harm or damage an animal may cause
- Evidence about harm or damage other animals have caused.
FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Evaluating Reasonable Accommodation Requests for Assistance Animal(s)

• PHAs may not deny the reasonable accommodation on:
  – Uncertainty about whether or not the person seeking the reasonable accommodation has a disability or disability-related need for the assistance animal.

• Approval of the reasonable accommodation:
  – If the answer to (1) and (2) on slide 103 is “yes,” then the FHA and Section 504 require the PHA to permit a person with a disability to live with and use an assistance animal(s) in all areas of the premises where persons are normally allowed to go, unless doing so would place an undue financial and administrative burden or would fundamentally alter the essential nature of the PHA’s services.

  • For a discussion on undue financial and administrative burdens and fundamental alterations of the PHA’s services, please read the Joint Statement of The Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Department of Justice Reasonable Accommodations Under the Fair Housing Act published on May 17, 2004. You may find it by following this link: http://bit.ly/1nkGLgBV
FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Documenting Reasonable Accommodation Requests for Assistance Animal(s)

• To make a decision on the reasonable accommodation:
  – PHAs may ask individuals who have disabilities that are not readily apparent or known to the provider to submit documentation of a disability and their disability-related need for an assistance animal.
  – If the disability is readily known or apparent but the disability-related need the assistance animal is not, the PHA may ask the individual to provide documentation of the disability-related need for an assistance animal (i.e. emotional support animal). Documentation could come from a physician, psychiatrist, social worker, or other person who is familiar with the disability. It is sufficient if it establishes the person has a disability and the animal will provide some type of disability related assistance or emotional support.
  – If the disability or disability related need for an assistance animal is readily apparent or known to the provider.

FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
General Reasonable Accommodations Standards

• As with all reasonable accommodation requests, PHAs may not ask an applicant or tenant to provide access to medical records or medical providers or provide access to detailed or extension information or documentation of a person’s physical or mental impairments.
• Determinations of whether a person has disability related need for a reasonable accommodation should be done as an individualized assessment (i.e. on a case-by-case basis).
• PHAs may not unreasonably deny or condition payment of a fee or deposit or other terms and conditions applied to applicants or residents.
• Responses on reasonable accommodation requests should not be unreasonable delayed.
FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Service Animals under the American with Disabilities Act

- Nuance – PHAs may have separate obligations under the ADA for service animals
- Service animals under the ADA are narrowly defined, as any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability.
  - Animals that provide emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work under this definition
- PHAs must not be handle service animals as a reasonable accommodation request. The animal need only meet the definition of “service animal” is to be allowed into the covered facility.

FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Evaluating Service Animals under the ADA

- PHAs in making a determination if an animal is a service animal shall not ask about the nature or extent of a person’s disability, but may make two inquiries:
  - Is this a service animal that is required because of a disability?
  - What work or tasks has the animal been trained to perform?
- These two inquiries may not be made if it readily apparent that the animal is trained to do work or perform tasks for an individual with a disability.
- PHAs may not require documentation, such as proof that the animal has been certified, trained or licensed as a service animal.
FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Evaluating Service Animals under the ADA

• Service animals must be allowed to accompany the individual with a disability to all areas of the facility where members of the public are normally allowed to go. Animals may not be denied access to a covered facility unless:
  – (1) the animal is out of control and its handler does not take effective action to control it
  – (2) the animal is not housebroken
  – (3) the animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others that cannot be eliminated or reduced to an acceptable level by a reasonable accommodation to other policies, practices, and procedures.
• A determination that a service animal poses a direct threat to the health or safety of others must be based on an individualized assessment of the specific animal’s actual conduct – not on fears, stereotypes or generalizations.

FHEO Notice 2013-01: Service and Assistance Animals
Applying the ADA, FHAct, and Section 504 Concurrently

• The ADA service animal test should be applied first. This is because it is a narrow line of questioning that assesses if the animal is a service animal that is required because of disability and if so what work or tasks the animal has been trained to perform.
• If the animal does not meet the service animal test, then the housing authority may evaluate the request as a reasonable accommodation to their “no pets” policy.
• PHAs may not use the ADA definition of service animal as a justification to reduce their FHAct and Section 502 obligations (ie limiting animals to only dogs or not allowing emotional support/companion animals).
PIH Notice 2011-61: Declarations of Trust

Summary

• On February 26, 2016, HUD OIG audited PHA’s compliance with DOT requirements
• PHAs are required to ensure a current DOT is recorded against any property that has been acquired, developed, maintained, or assisted with funds from the US Housing Act of 1937.
• HUD has found that DOTs recorded against properties are not recorded against many properties or that the original DOT expired.
PIH Notice 2011-61: Declarations of Trust

Declaration of Trust

• DOTs are legal instruments that grant HUD an interest in the public housing property. It provides notice that the property must be operated in accordance with public housing requirements including not to convey or encumber the property unless allowed by federal law and/or HUD.

• Form of DOT:
  – HUD 52190-A for Development Grant Projects
  – HUD 52190-B for Public Housing Modernization Grants
  – Mixed Finance Developments: Declaration of Restrictive Covenants

• DOTs must be recorded with legal descriptions of the property

PIH Notice 2011-61: Declarations of Trust

Release of DOT

• DOTs do not automatically terminate or expire from public records when HUD approves a property or unit from the ACC.
